The Federated Development Company (FDC) [] [] The FDC owns several individual companies. One of these companies is Maxxam Inc. Maxxam Inc. in turn owns The Pacific Lumber Company (PLC) which is located in Northern California. The PLC was recently acquired by Maxxam Inc. and a study done by Maxxam Inc. determined that the PLC was not being ran in an efficient manner. Consequently, the management at Maxxam Inc., consisting primarily of [] determined that the PLC would engage in an aggressive lumbering policy. This resulted in many environmental groups protesting the new lumbering policy of PLC. Some of the protest activities have been undertaken by radical environmental activists who have utilized potentially hazardous techniques such as "tree spiking".

b6
b7C

One of the more extreme environmental protest groups is known as Earth First. This group is headed by Darryl Cherney and Judi Bari. In May 1990, Cherney and Bari were injured when an explosive device exploded in a car they were in while they travelled in Oakland, California. It is believed that Cherney and Bari were transporting the explosive device so that it could be used in their environmental protest activities.

On Monday September, 17, 1990, an envelope that was postmarked in San Francisco on September 13, 1990, was received at the FDC offices. This envelope was addressed to [] [] c/o Federated Development. A copy of the envelope is

The current course of accelerated logging by Pacific Lumber is unacceptable. If you do not stop your own unconscionably greedy and myopic operation of Pacific Lumber, we are committed to stopping you.

We are a network of highly educated men and women who have been diagnosed HIV positive. A droplet of body fluid transferred from any one of us can begin the process in your body, which has begun in our own. Our methods to accomplish this are sure and silent. We know where you are. We surround your everyday activities. Our actions cannot be observed. Your death will be slow and irreversible, as is ours. You have the power to stop this plunder of the Timberlands. You must stop what you have started.

If you do not immediately stop your highly accelerated rape of the Forests, then it is you who shall be cut down.

We regret our course of action, but regret yours much more.

Our time is short; so is yours.

[redacted] was contacted by phone at his office in Branscomb, care of telephone number [redacted] at which time he was reminded of the identity of the contacting Agent and asked if he recalls anyone at the first meeting held at Dan's Frontier Room to have said they would not stay and listen to people who were "pro choice" and then proceed to leave the meeting.

b6

[redacted] replied that he believes that [redacted] left the first meeting but he does not recall either one of them making such a statement. He added it was possible for them to have said something to someone sitting nearby and for him not to have heard it. [redacted] works for Oakstrom Logging and can be reached at the following: home [redacted] or work [redacted] stated that if a comment had been made he believes JUDY BAILEY would have heard it.

b6
b7C

[redacted] stated the only person at the meetings that he is aware of who knew JUDI BARI was involved in the "pro choice" issue is [redacted] believes that the only time a comment was made about JUDI's position in the abortion issue was at the meeting following the bombing of BARI's car. [redacted] added that the reason he knows about this is because of a comment made to him in private by [redacted] repeated that this comment was made after the bombing.

b6

[redacted] was then asked if he believed that any of the timber industry people present at the meetings in Willits were capable of writing a letter such as the letter from the "Lord's Avenger"? He replied he did not think any of those at the meetings would engage in the bombing of BARI's car nor be able to write as well as the "Lord's Avenger". He added, however, he thought CHERNEY would be able to write such a letter as he was reported to have been an English Professor back East.

b6
b7C

[redacted] continued stating that while BARI and CHERNEY were publicly disavowing "monkey wrenching" and other types of violence, he understands that [redacted] was not going along with this position.

[redacted] Louisiana Pacific Corporation, Western Division, was contacted at his offices, 26800 Asti Road, Cloverdale, California, at which time he was advised of the identity of the interviewing Agents and told the Agents were inquiring about the bomb located at his facility on May 6, 1990.

b6

[redacted] advised he discovered the device upon his arrival at work and contacted the Sonoma County Sheriff's office who responded and investigated. He then led the Agents to the area outside of his office where the device was located and pointed out various scorch marks and wood damage caused by the device.

b6

[redacted] was then asked to review the history of any labor/management problems that LP had experienced, particularly at the Cloverdale location, to which he replied that there had been very few problems, particularly by May, 1990. [redacted] furnished a list compiled on May 9, 1990, of employees whose jobs had been terminated within the last six months, noting that the cause of the termination was written on the list. One of the last salaried employees to be terminated was [redacted] who was let go on April 6, 1990. [redacted] believes [redacted] is presently working at the Korbelt plant belonging to Simpson timber located in Arcata.

b6

[redacted] was then asked if there were any employees, terminated or otherwise, he might consider as suspects in the bombing of his facility. He replied he did not think any of the LP employees were involved in the bombing, particularly in May, 1990. He added by that time the present slow down in harvesting had just barely begun and there was not the perceived threat of the environmentalists as there might be at the present.

b6

[redacted] stated that when the bombing of the Cloverdale LP facility was first discovered he thought it had to be the environmentalists. He based his belief on the fact that there had not been a real problem between management and labor as indicated by the claim found along with the bomb which said "LP screws millworkers". He also said that he believed that his location was targeted as it was the first log cutting mill north of the Day Area and the easiest to get to. He believed further

Dear Editor,

Darryl Chernay
Box 34
Garberville CA 95440

b6
b7C

Your guest editorial by [redacted] "How To save a forest" was disgusting and Hitlerian in the nature of the "Big Lie" it told. Firstly, the notion that the benefits we receive from trees have come to us without charge assumes that one must somehow pay money in order to be assured ~~xxxx~~ clean drinking water, steady rainfall and a healthy planet. I thought that those were gifts from God, not things we had to pay Louisiana Pacific for.

What we do have to pay for is NOT having trees. Decreased rainfall, global warming (from slash burning), depleted wildlife of many species and desertification are just some of the ways we have to pay. Just ask any Ethiopian.

The author ends with the frightening conclusion that now that the trees were gone a special secret, the sunset, was revealed to him, as he sat beneath his "beautiful" striped patio awning, which he used for shade since the trees were gone. ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~ Sunsets and forests are not mutually exclusive and in living in harmony with the land, one learns to accept what it has to offer, not radically alter it to meet one's selfish desires. TheZ

The awning does not draw rainfall or keep streambeds in place. With no trees the temperature of the house goes up increasing air conditioning bills. And off course, with skin cancer on the rise due to the depletion of the ozone layer, that sunset Michael Reed is revelling in will soon give his pale face skin cancer. But not because he morally deserves it. Simply because in the creation of God, nature bats last.

By the way, the vast majority of people in this world neither own nor believe in private property. Not because they are communists, but because they know it is not possible to own the Earth. This applies to the animals, too, which overall are a hell of a lot smarter than most humans.

Sincerely,
Darryl Chernay

He has been active in the timber industry in Fort Bragg all of his life, has been an active spokesman of the industry, publicly debating the timber issue with spokespersons from the environmental community, including Earth First!

He has been aware of and known DARRYL CHERNEY for the past three or four years but has only been aware of JUDI BARI for approximately the past few months. He first met BARI at a Mendocino County Board of Supervisors meeting in Ukiah in early May, 1990. At this meeting BARI took the microphone away from a speaker and began to filibuster regarding Earth First! [redacted] then took the microphone from her and responded from the timber side. BARI was subsequently asked to leave by one of the supervisors. During [redacted] public or private comments on this occasion he emotionally expressed that there would be trouble if anything happened to any of his trucks, referring to sabotage. BARI responded by denouncing [redacted] remarks as being a threat. [redacted] stated then and now that he did not mean it as such.

Later that month [redacted] invited [redacted] to a meeting in Willits with representatives of the timber and environmental groups. BARI made the request of the loggers that they no longer carry firearms with them when they go into the woods. [redacted] declined this, stating that loggers have always carried rifles and other firearms with them into the woods and they represent no hazard to anyone.

It is his understanding that CHERNEY was not invited by the Earth Firsters. [REDACTED] has heard DARRYL CHERNEY speak in a way that implies he condones sabotage and is generally perceived as being more militant than JUDI BARI. [REDACTED] has known DARRYL CHERNEY for four or five years and remembers him singing and speaking at an environmentalist and timber people function about three years ago. He had received a facsimile copy of a letter from the FBI to the Country Activists in Redway, California, explaining the nature of the contact. ALM also furnished photocopies of the attached eight hoax Earth First! and spoof letters or communications; two cartoons; six letters and/or lists related to boycotting advertisers by Mother's Watch; and three letters and a leaflet entitled "Stompers" which are of a threatening nature. ALM also made available the newspaper's manual typewriter, an Olympic, for typing exemplars.

[redacted] the Willits News, was advised of the identity of the interviewing agents and exhibited the Lord's Avenger letter claiming credit for two bombings. After reviewing the letter, which [redacted] stated she had read in the newspaper previously, she made the following comments based upon her nearly thirty years of being a newspaper editor and reading thousands of sheets of reporters' copy and letters to the editor:

The Lord's Avenger author is a good speller and typist who has skillfully composed his subject matter and written it with confidence. The author is also very literate. She noticed that the author strikes out his mistakes rather than erasing them, which is the style of a journalist. Contrary to the style of a journalist, though, she observed that the Lord's Avenger author uses number symbols for numbers less than ten, whereas traditional journalists will spell out numbers one to ten. This could mean that the typist was copying someone else's text.

[redacted] observed that the typewriter is an old, dirty manual typewriter that hasn't been cleaned for years. She speculated that letters written by this machine over the past several months or year would be virtually the same.

Abortion issue goes another round before Supreme Court

by Carrie Switzer

Women across the Country have been invited to recount their experience of abortion, whether legal or illegal, to include in a legal brief to be presented to the U.S. Supreme Court.

Petitions are being circulated in Willits and other communities to provide a pro-choice forum of discussion in upcoming Supreme Court cases.

Protests at Planned Parenthood clinics Nationwide have escalated over the last two years as anti-abortionists also prepare for the Supreme Court case.

The pending Webster versus Reproductive Health Services, is being called the most important abortion case since Wade versus Roe of 1973. In that case the Supreme Court ruled it was unconstitutional for individual states to regulate abortions. Anti-abortionists are expecting Webster versus Reproductive Health Services, and three similar cases, to overturn the 1973 ruling.

The National Abortion Rights Action League and the National Organization of Women have been asked to prepare a legal brief in the case. Both organizations have asked women to contribute their story to be included in the brief as friends of the court.

The final collection of letters and stories were received the last week in February, and those who wish to join in the brief must send signed authorization forms by March 17.

"What I'm afraid of is what it's (abortion) going to get back to," commented a local resident who is distributing petition forms. "When I had an abortion I had three concerns which helped me choose to terminate my pregnancy. My husband had had extensive exposure to hot nuclear radiation, he was scheduled to undergo surgery for a cancerous tumor, and I really didn't want any more children. I was 29-years-old and had two children already," she said. The woman had made several attempts to have her reproductive tubes tied, but couldn't find a doctor to perform the pregnancy-preventing surgery, she said.

"In those days, the 1960s, not only was abortion illegal in many places, and dangerous unless you could find a private physician to perform it, but it was highly unpopular to choose not to have any more children. Basically what several doctors told me is that some day a man in shining armor would come along and I would want to have his child. It was a fairy tale."

The same woman told her story in the brief, and a more tragic story of a friend who traveled to Mexico in the 1960s to have an abortion. She was 16-years-old, and was accompanied to the clinic by her mother. Right in the middle of the procedure, she said, the clinic was raided by Mexican and American authorities, (abortions were illegal), and the patient was left on the table. After coming back to the States, the girl delivered the rest of her fetus six months later on a school bus.

Another local woman who had been exposed to measles during her pregnancy in the 1950s, a disease known to cause severe birth defects in the fetus, and presents an imminent health danger to the mother, searched for three months before she could get approval to abort her pregnancy.

"The anti-abortionists argue that abortions will be allowed if the health of the fetus or the mother is at stake. But who is to decide on these issues and how much will a woman have to go through to get what she needs," the woman said.

The sides have been drawn over recent years as pro-choice and pro-life, and each has raised one of the most controversial questions of our time. Whether a woman has the right to choose not to carry and raise a child in the event of an unwanted pregnancy, and at what point does a conceived child have rights of its own, worthy of protection by persons other than the parent.

Potter Valley resident Bill Staley, who has been an outspoken opponent of abortions, said recently that abortions need to be stopped Nationwide. He considers himself a member of "a higher church," and was at the center of an opposition group at the Ukiah Planned Parenthood clinic in Ukiah last year. Planned Parenthood is the only facility in Mendocino County that offers abortion services.

Staley maintains that abortion is used as a convenience, and that the issue goes deeper, "to influencing the family structure of America."

"Abortions kill 4500 babies every day," Staley said. "I'm going to stand up for the rights of these babies."

Staley has had his own personal brush with the issue, when he was 17 and found himself an expectant father.

"In 1964 there was no doctor in town or nearby that would perform an abortion, which is what we were considering. Because of the lack of availability, that baby is now a beautiful young lady who graduated from college two years ago."

Staley's story "didn't turn out rosie," he admits. The young couple was married, but divorced two years later. He supported his daughter until she was 18-years-old, he said, but he did not know her or develop a relationship with her.

Staley commented that since the Roe versus Wade decision the Supreme Court has been filled by a much more conservative majority.

Evil lurks in Ukiah

To The Editor:

Planned (non) Parenthood

The very name should tip off anyone with any sense at all, to the evil sinister plans of this organization.

Planned Parenthood's real motives are to not make you a parent at all. They say it's a "parasite" in your body. The Supreme Court says, "Person does not apply to the unborn."

A noted abortionist says, "We know it's killing, but the state sanctioned it (abortion)."

Pro-life people believe conception begins at day one. We know the baby has his own body, own DNA and own blood type. What ever happened to basic morality and contraceptives. To date we have aborted 10 times the total number lost in all of our wars.

The name Planned Parenthood should cause all of us in Ukiah to shudder deep within our souls. They will be aborting your grandbabies and you won't even know it. Did you know they can abort a baby in the third trimester, that is up to 9 months. Did you know a teen-ager can be excused from school without parental knowledge to have a free abortion (paid for by you and me) and be returned to school, the parent none the wiser, unless any complications arise either physical or mental. Yet the school cannot give that same girl an aspirin.

They do the planning all right and line their pockets with your tax dollars. A free pregnancy test that costs less than a dime cost you and me over $50. Can you imagine how much they charge us to abort another American?

We have a very fine pregnancy counseling center in Ukiah. They will give "real" free pregnancy tests and counsel people caught in a crisis pregnancy.

The personal devastation, guilt, remorse, shame and humiliation is very real and documented. We, as a nation and community must stop this holocaust. Let's not allow this evil in Ukiah with out raising so much as a little finger. The irony of the medical community doing all they can to save and help babies at one end of the medical building and carrying out (dead) aborted fetuses at the other end is as damning as calling an abortion mill, "Planned Parenthood."

Evil prospers when good men do nothing.

Pro-choice is no choice for the un-born. It has meant the death to 20 million so far.

Pro-life is life and health to both mom and baby.

Please help them every Friday at 3:30 in front of 620 S. Dora. (at a) non-violent protest rally.

My sympathy and overwhelming compassion goes out to those who have been or are involved in a crisis pregnancy. If God can forgive David of the Old Testament and call him "A man after my own heart" he can and will forgive any and all of us. Repentance and receiving God's gift Jesus Christ is the key, the only key I believe.

[redacted] Harwood Products Company, Bransom, California, was contacted at the (former) Frontier Room, Commercial and Marin Streets, Willits, California at which time he was advised of the identity of the interviewing Agent by a display of credentials and introduced to Sergeant [redacted] of the Willits Police Department who was assisting in the interview. [redacted] was also advised that the interviewing Agent and Sergeant [redacted] wanted to question him about the events of the meeting held at the Frontier Room on the evening of Tuesday, May 22, 1990. [redacted] then furnished the following information:

b6
b7C

[redacted] stated the meeting was scheduled to begin around 6:00 p.m. but was delayed in that not all of the anticipated attendees had arrived. At approximately 6:05 or 6:10 he observed JUDI BARI arrive and park her car, a white Subaru station wagon, in front of the restaurant on Marin Street. BARI made a U-turn on the south end of Marin and ended up parking so that car was facing north on the east side of the street. When JUDI BARI arrived there were about four or five people in her vehicle and he remembered thinking that there were a lot of people in her station wagon. One of the reasons he remembers thinking this is that the meetings were supposed to be limited to a given number of people, people who were previously invited, and he wondered if JUDI BARI intended to bring all of these people to the meeting. After parking, JUDI BARI got out of the vehicle and came into the meeting by herself. At about the time she arrived, [redacted] who was the facilitator, started the meeting. It was about at [redacted] [redacted] with her and asked if it would be all right to invite him to join the meeting. BARI was given an okay to invite [redacted] to join.

b6
b7C

[redacted] believes that the people who arrived with JUDI BARI were still in her vehicle.

b6
b7C

JUDI BARI then left the meeting and returned with [redacted] at about 6:15 to 6:20 p.m. [redacted] sat next to or near JUDI BARI during the meeting. [redacted] added he cannot say for certain whether JUDI BARI went back to her car to get [redacted] and added he does not recall anyone going to JUDI BARI's car during the course of the meeting. parked right outside of the room within full view of many of the attendees at the meeting.

[REDACTED] was asked if he could recall who else may have arrived with BARI and he replied that he did not know any of the individuals but believes they were all males.

b6
b7C

[REDACTED] stated the meeting lasted until approximately 8:30 p.m. and he does not recall JUDI BARI leaving the meeting. It seemed to him that BARI had to get going because she had to meet these other people.

b6
b7C

[REDACTED] did remember talking to [REDACTED] after the meeting and believes that many of the attendees stayed and talked informally for about a half an hour after the meeting ended.

b6
b7C

[REDACTED] also recalled talking to JUDI BARI about whether Earth First should provide security for logging operations.

b6
b7C

[REDACTED] was asked if he knew of anyone, either at the meeting or elsewhere, who might have the wherewithall to cause harm to JUDI BARI. [REDACTED] answered stating that everyone knew that the worst thing one could do on behalf of the timber industry would be to make JUDI BARI a martyr.

b6
b7C

[REDACTED] advised he was unaware of any threats made to JUDI BARI or her friends, and added that JUDI BARI had the "most to gain" by receiving a death threat. [REDACTED] concluded stating that while there had been talk of plans for "Redwood Summer", by May, 1990, no one had been hurt by any of the Earth First activities and he did not believe there was anyone of the frame of mind to try to hurt JUDI BARI.

b6
b7C

[REDACTED] was then asked to describe the table arrangement during the meeting on the night of May 22 and to indicate, to the best of his recollection, where the attendees were situated. [REDACTED] then proceeded to sketch the approximate arrangement of the banquet room as he remembered it on the night of May 22 and listed and located those in attendance. A xerox copy of this sketch, which is not to scale, is attached herewith to this report.

Agent wished to question him regarding the events of the meeting held at the former Frontier Room on Tuesday, May 22, 1990. [redacted] then furnished the following information:

b6
b7C

[redacted] stated he works as a consultant for Harwood Products Company and has engaged in mediation matters on their behalf. Approximately eight months ago he and [redacted] facilitated a meeting at the Harwood Products Company, to which were invited the Cahto Peak Wilderness Coalition (CPW). The CPW is (was) composed of many Earth First members, of which JUDI BARI was one. Harwood Products continued to hold meetings with CPW on a monthly basis at a coffee shop in Laytonville, California.
However, after awhile, these meetings ceased.

b6
b7C

When word was received of the planned "Redwood Summer" it was decided by Harwood Products to continue to discuss the issues and wanted to pull together key people from both sides.
The idea was to work towards non-violence for the summer.

The first of this second series of meetings was held on May 8, 1990, with the second meeting scheduled for May 22, 1990.
However, the third meeting, scheduled for June 5, 1990, was moved up a week because of the bombing to JUDI BARI's car.

[redacted] stated that on the evening of May 22, he observed JUDI BARI arrive. The meeting was late in starting and when BARI arrived she had three, four or five people in her car.
He stated it was a "car full".

b6
b7C

[redacted] added that since there have been a number of meetings (before and after the bombing) between the timber industry people and the environmentalists, most of which have been held at the Frontier Room, he is not absolutely certain that the events he recalls observing on May 22 are in fact all of that meeting. He stated, however, he believes that after JUDI BARI arrived and parked her car, a couple of other cars also containing environmental supporters arrived. He recalls that a number of people gathered in a circle on the sidewalk prior to JUDI BARI and some others actually entering the restaurant.

[redacted] was then handed a xerox copy of a sketch of the restaurant area (which is not to scale) and asked to indicate on the sketch approximately where JUDI BARI had parked her car. [redacted] noted that the sketch did not allow for a sidewalk and he then indicated on the drawing the location where JUDI BARI parked her car. He also stated that he thought that there was another car belonging to some environmentalists parked in front of JUDI BARI's car.

b6

[redacted] stated the meeting began between 6:00 and 6:30 p.m. and during most of the meeting, because he was the facilitator and was using a flip chart on an easel, he was standing at the front of the room. The tables were arranged in somewhat of a triangle shape, with most of the environmentalists sitting at the back table, located along the wall adjacent to Marin Street. Because of where he was standing he was able to look past the back table onto Marin Street where JUDI BARI's car was parked.

b6
b7C

[redacted] stated he was not aware of anyone going to JUDI BARI's car during the meeting but added as the facilitator, he was focused on the discussion going on in the room. [redacted] stated that he and others were working on a set of agreements the members of the group could agree on and stated that if there was something very obvious happening outside it may have grabbed his mind. He does not recall however anything catching his attention. [redacted] stated "I had a pretty good shot at the car from where I stood, I knew where it was. I was standing at the front of the room the whole time and I don't remember seeing anything."

b6
b7C

[redacted] then stated that it seemed like just days after the bombing that the letter came out from the Lord's Avenger. While there was a lot of talk about the bombing during the next meeting, he did believe that the letter had been sent out by that time.

b6
b7C

[redacted] described these meetings as good, adding that there had been some level of cooperation and that JUDI BARI had been actively working towards cooperation. She tried to get all parties to cooperate and it appeared to be important to her to have the Redwood Summer be non-violent.

[REDACTED] stated it was hard for him to believe that JUDI BARI, who had worked so hard for non-violence, could in fact carry around a bomb.

b6
b7C

[REDACTED] stated he has not met any people, on either side of the issue, who have indicated an interest in violence. Actually, it has been to the contrary. He stated the meetings he went to were good. There was progress being made and the people there were willing to follow the process being laid out.

b6
b7C

[REDACTED] was asked if DARRYL CHERNEY attended the meetings and he replied that he understands DARRYL CHERNEY did not want to be a part of the group and believes he has a history of not being willing to negotiate.

b6
b7C

[REDACTED] was asked if JUDI BARI came to the meeting on May 22 with anyone and he replied stating he believes JUDI BARI came with someone who had been involved in demonstrations in the past. This person was outside the restaurant at first and JUDI BARI asked if he could be invited in and he was. This friend of JUDI BARI's sat in the back at JUDI BARI's table (but not next to her). [REDACTED] added he recalled that after the meeting this guy came up to him and said "good job" indicating that he too had had experience facilitating meetings where there was compromise and mediation.

b6
b7C

[REDACTED] was asked to indicate as best he could the locations of those in attendance. He did so stating, he was concerned that he would confuse this meeting with others that he had attended.

[redacted] Pacific Steel and Supply, 2062 West Avenue 140th, [redacted] was advised of the identity of the interviewing Agent and the nature of the interview. He furnished the following information.

b6
b7C

His company purchases nails in various sizes from manufacturers in Saudia Arabia, Korea, China and the U.S. Examination of his inventory determined his stack of 8 penny or 8D shiny steel finishing nails were manufactured in Saudi Arabia and packaged in Pacific Steel Supply cartons in quantities of fifty pounds.

Examination of samples of the 8D nails determined them to bear about ten horizontal gripping nails below the head of the nail on two sides of the shaft of the nail. Above the gripping marks and below the head it was observed there is a "C" or crescent mark apparently made at the time of the gripping marks.

[redacted] advised his company distributes its products, which include nails, to many customers in Solano, Mendocino and Humboldt counties. Not all of these customers purchase nails but a separate determination is not feasible. [redacted] advised he would furnish a computer printout of the identities of these customers.

[redacted] Fireman, Oakland Fire Department, Station Number 4, 13th Avenue and East 14th Street, home telephone number [redacted] was telephonically contacted during his vacation, and advised of the identity of the interviewing agent. He was advised that the nature of the interview was to determine the extent of his knowledge of the car bombing on Park Boulevard on May 24, 1990. He furnished the following information:

b6
b7C

[redacted] was one of the firemen responding on truck number four (4) to a small white automobile, which was lodged against a pedestrian pole at the northwest corner of the intersection. Acting Officer [redacted] directed Fireman [redacted] to cut the pedestrian pole at the sidewalk using the Hearst Tool, also known as the Jaws of Life. [redacted] then utilized a cutting attachment to sever the post, which gave access to the driver's door, which had been damaged by an explosion and would not open.

b6
b7C

[redacted] then directed Fireman [redacted] to use the spreader attachment of the Hearst Tool to spring the latch of the driver's door at the post, which [redacted] did, enabling [redacted] to open the door. Fireman [redacted] was then directed to cut the top of the door post on the driver's side. That cut enabled removal of the post and rear door since the bottom of the post and part of the doors had been blown away by the force of the explosion.

b6
b7C

As firemen and ambulance personnel removed the female driver from the vehicle, she was screaming in pain, especially when being moved. Fireman [redacted] observed that it was possible to see through the floor boards of the vehicle to the street pavement below, and that nails were embedded in the back of the driver's seat. Fireman [redacted] from Engine 16, was in the rear of the vehicle, assisting the extrication of the driver.

He was at lunch with other firemen in the firehouse, when they heard an explosion, looked out the window, and saw a white cloud of smoke coming from the area of Park Boulevard and Highway 580.

He and the others responded immediately, not waiting for a call, and arrived at the scene within a couple of minutes. Arriving, he saw a small white Subaru, lodged against a pole at the curb, with two occupants in the front seats. Approaching the vehicle, he observed the white male passenger to be holding the left side of his head, which was bleeding. Fireman [] climbed in the back of the vehicle, while [] attended a 62 year old white female in the white car across the street, who was having apparent heart problems.

b6

While with the heart patient, [] observed her to take nitroglycerin pills and explained that as she came down Park Boulevard at the intersection of MacArthur Boulevard, a "huge ball of fire," accompanying an explosion, came from an oncoming automobile, which she identified as the Subaru at the curb. [] stayed with this patient until she was transported by Allied ambulance. [] then returned to the Subaru, where he noticed the passenger had been removed from the car and placed on a gurney. By this time, truck number 4 had arrived and firemen were setting up the jaws of life. [] observed them to open the driver's door and cut the top of the post between the driver and passenger door. He furnished the following information:

b6

He responded to the incident as the rear driver of a hook and ladder truck, which also transports the rescue equipment and jaws of life. He was the acting officer at the scene. Initially, they were told they were responding to an unidentified explosion, but upon arrival, saw that Engine Company Number 16 had arrived and firemen from that unit informed him of the need for the Jaws of Life to extract a driver from a white Subaru stationwagon.

While three other firemen went for the tools, [redacted] responded to the vehicle where he observed the driver's door to be intact, but jammed next to a pedestrian guard rail at the curb where the car came to rest. He directed Fireman [redacted] to cut the pedestrian rail, which [redacted] pulled away once it was severed. [redacted] then spread the door jam with the Jaws of Life and then [redacted] pulled the door open. Fireman [redacted] then used the jaws and a cutter to cut the top of the driver's side door post, and thereafter bent the post down to the ground with the rear door hinged to it. This gave a wide access to the injured female driver. [redacted] assisted Fireman [redacted] of Engine Number 16 and other firemen and paramedics in sliding a back board under the female driver. It was necessary for [redacted] to untangle the female driver's clothing and buttocks from the car seats springs. They put her on a gurney and she was transported by the ambulance crew to the ambulance and subsequently to a nearby hospital. [redacted] observed the female driver to scream in pain a couple of times and complained of her injuries to her back.

[redacted] Allied Ambulance, Inc.,

identity of the interviewing Agent and that the nature of the interview was his knowledge of the car bombing on Park Boulevard on May 24th. [redacted] advised that he resides at [redacted] [redacted] telephone number [redacted] and furnished the following information:

b6
b7C

On Thursday, May 24, 1990, he was working a 10:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m. shift and assigned to Ambulance Unit #41. At about noon time, he was dispatched to a motor vehicle incident at Park Boulevard and MacArthur Boulevard. Arriving with his partner, [redacted] he was told by firemen already at the scene that a bombing had occurred in a small white stationwagon, but the vehicle was secure. [redacted] were the first ambulance to respond.

b6
b7C

Upon approaching the vehicle, [redacted] observed two people to be inside and injured and also learned of a possible heart condition in a vehicle down the street. He then called for additional ambulances to respond.

b6
b7C

Approaching the female driver at her door while [redacted] tended to the male passenger, [redacted] asked the driver her name, where she is, what day it is, and why she was at this location, in the course of routine procedure to establish the level of her consciousness. The female driver responded correctly only to her name, while saying it was Wednesday and she was in San Francisco.
She did not know how old she was. During this questioning, the male passenger attempted to answer for her, volunteering that she is 40 years old. The female driver complained about pain in her hips and back and that she could not feel her legs. When [redacted] touched her toes and legs, she responded that she could feel that. [redacted] asked her what happened and she responded,
"I don't remember."

b6
b7C

[redacted] then put an oxygen mask on her and asked the fireman to take the door off her car to enable her removal. The fireman then cut a pole from the sidewalk against which the car was wedged and cut away the driver's door and door post.

Meanwhile a fireman was in the back seat of the car holding the female driver's head still. The passenger having been removed from the vehicle, [redacted] entered the vehicle from the passenger side and was attempting to start an I.V. when the fireman completed removing the door. [redacted] and four or five firemen then slid a "long board" under the female driver's hips to enable her removal. It was at this time that [redacted] saw that some of the seat springs had penetrated the female driver's buttocks and she was extracted from them. The driver was then slid out on her back, head first on the board and removed from the vehicle while screaming and crying in pain.

b6

The driver was then placed on a gurney and put into the ambulance, where Paramedic [redacted] and a paramedic from another unit were inside assisting. [redacted] drove his unit to nearby Highland Hospital with the female driver and the two paramedics in the rear.

b6

At Highland Hospital, while bringing the female driver to the trauma unit, the male passenger was on a gurney in the hallway and some conversation was in progress in which someone mentioned a bombing. The male passenger on the gurney then stated that he and she belong to Earth First and, "Someone put a bomb in our car." The female driver was moaning and groaning in discomfort at this time as [redacted] brought her into the trauma room and left the hospital. Back in his vehicle, [redacted] wrote down some notations about the comments made by the male passenger. These notes are currently at [redacted] residence but he will furnish them to the interviewing Agent in the next day or so.

Arriving at the scene, her partner responded to the woman in an automobile with a cardiac problem, while she went immediately to a white Subaru stationwagon that was jammed up against a pedestrian guard at the corner of the intersection. As she approached that vehicle, firemen were trying to extricate a white female driver from the vehicle, but were having difficulty. [redacted] then went to the passenger doorway to tend to a white male passenger in the front seat who seemed to have suffered an injury to the left side of his head and face, who was being attended by Paramedic [redacted] of Allied Ambulance. [redacted] had given the passenger a trauma dressing, which he held to his bloody left eye.

b7C

[redacted] asked him his name, age, what had happened and if he was hurt in an effort to determine his consciousness and coherency. This individual gave his name and clearly spelled his last name as "C-H-E-R-N-E-Y". CHERNEY then made several statements, including, "This was an assassination attempt. They've been trying to kill us for a long time. A car bomb, a bomb exploded. How's JUDI BARI? How's JUDI, is she okay. She's a godsend. Do you know she's an environmental activist. We're with Earth First."

b6
b7C

CHERNEY repeated the statements a couple of times, particularly "This is an assassination attempt. They are trying to kill us."

In response to a question by [REDACTED] CHERNEY responded that he knew that he was in Oakland, California, his age and generally seemed to be "oriented to the event". [REDACTED] then helped CHERNEY out of the car and onto a gurney and spineboard, upon which he was placed in the back of an ambulance. CHERNEY was talking all of this time about his political movement and JUDI BARI while a video camera was running within a few feet of CHERNEY and [REDACTED] possibly a television camera as [REDACTED] had observed a TV news crew at the scene.

b6
b7C

[REDACTED] volunteered that it struck her odd that when she first responded to CHERNEY he said that a bomb exploded and did not have to ask what happened at all. At that time, [REDACTED] herself did not know what the cause of the accident was.

b6
b7C

On the way to the hospital, CHERNEY talked continually about his relationship with JUDI BARI, saying, "She was my girlfriend. We just broke up. I'm trying to work things out. God bless her."

Sometime during her treating CHERNEY at the scene or during transport, CHERNEY also talked about tree spikes and something or some event in Santa Cruz. [REDACTED] observed that CHERNEY's demeanor was completely unusual, partly in that he spoke very loud as if to divert or draw attention to himself and his group. He did not speak in a conversational tone, it was more like a speech. CHERNEY was also extremely distrustful of assurances given by [REDACTED] and other medical personnel that his female companion was all right. [REDACTED] observed that the focus of CHERNEY's comments was on JUDI BARI and her standing in the organization, rather than what had happened at the explosion site. His comments also included, "They didn't kill us. They tried to run her down."

[redacted] He was advised of the identity of the interviewing Agent and that the purpose of the interview was to determine his knowledge of the car bombing that occurred on May 24th at Park and MacArthur Boulevards. He furnished the following information:

[redacted] Shortly before noon on that day, he and his partner, [redacted] were called to respond to a vehicle incident at Park and MacArthur Boulevards. Arriving at the scene, [redacted] immediately went to a white Subaru stationwagon that was damaged and wedged against a post at the corner of the intersection. [redacted] was the first medical personnel to approach the male passenger in the front seat of the vehicle, seeing others attending to the female driver. Approaching the passenger, [redacted] observed him to be bloody in the area of the left portion of his face in the vicinity of his eye. [redacted] gave him a trauma pack to place over his eye.

b7C

[redacted] asked the passenger what happened, to which the passenger responded, "They bombed us." [redacted] asked "Why?" The passenger responded, "We are political activists. We are Earth First, we organize demonstrations." The passenger repeated this several times and inquired about the condition of the female driver. The passenger explained that he was able to walk and asked [redacted] to take care of his companion.

b6
b7C

Being the first at the scene, [redacted] was by definition the triage coordinator and in that position, he directed Paramedic [redacted] to take the passenger to an ambulance.

b6

[redacted] then gave his attention to the female driver, who was still trapped in the vehicle while fire department personnel were making efforts to extricate her. Paramedic [redacted] who was treating the driver, decided to wait until fire department personnel removed her door, rather than risk taking her out through the passenger door because she may have suffered spinal damage.

[redacted] Fireman, Oakland Fire Department, Engine 16, 3600 - 13th Avenue, telephone number [redacted] was contacted at the Fire Station, advised of the identity of the interviewing Agents and that the nature of the interview was his knowledge of the car bombing on Park Boulevard on May 24th. He furnished the following information:

b6
b7C

[redacted] resides at [redacted] telephone number [redacted]. He was on duty at the Engine 16 Station at about noon on May 24th. He and other fireman were at the kitchen table when they heard and felt a blast from the area of Park Boulevard and Highway 580. He saw a cloud of white smoke rising from the trees in that vicinity. He and the other fireman anticipated a call for their services and responded before the call came in. They and their engine arrived at the scene one or two minutes after the explosion.

b6
b7C

As the engine arrived at the scene, [redacted] got off the truck and ran to the small white Subaru and observed a white female trapped in the driver's seat. A young white female who was standing by the car identified herself as a friend of the driver's. [redacted] learned later that this female's name was [redacted] (last name unknown).

b6
b7C

[redacted] opened the driver's side rear door in an effort to gain entry to the car and had to remove a damaged guitar case and a small blue musical instrument case to gain entry to the car. He put these on the sidewalk. [redacted] then removed two pieces of wood from the guitar from the car floor. At that point, he observed that the floor of the car behind the driver's seat contained a large blast hole through which he could see the street pavement.

b6
b7C

[redacted] climbed in and sat in the back seat of the car and began to tend to the female driver (now known to him to have been JUDITH BARI). In an effort to determine her condition, he asked her name and where she was hurting. She responded that her back hurt and that she wanted to lay down. With some difficulty, [redacted] was able to recline her seat part way, which gave her some relief. [redacted] assessed that it was not possible to extract her from the driver's door, because it was damaged or through the passenger door because of her condition.

At this time, the white male who was in the passenger seat was holding a cloth to the left side of his head where he seemed to be injured and was bleeding. This passenger (since identified to [REDACTED] as DARRYL CHERNEY) was speaking coherently to the female driver saying that everything was going to be okay and that he loved her.

b6
b7C

[REDACTED] noticed a conspicuous lack of questions and comments by both the female driver and the male occupant as to what had happened and had they been hit and how. This struck [REDACTED] as strange because in his fifteen years of experience as a fireman, responding to such incidents, victims always are obsessed with talking about what has happened and how they were driving or what they were doing at the time. The conspicuous absence of these comments struck [REDACTED] as being most unusual and suspicious.

b6
b7C

From the back seat, [REDACTED] observed the male passenger to get out of the car with the help of paramedics and firemen. The firemen then forcibly cut away the driver's door and doorpost to gain access to the female driver. Paramedics began to cut her clothes away, although [REDACTED] later observed that her jeans had actually been torn from her by the force of the blast. [REDACTED] cut away her seatbelt and further reclined her seat to relieve the pain that she continued to complain of in her back and legs. It was also necessary for the firemen from the equipment truck to cut away a pedestrian guard rail against which the car was lodged.

b6
b7C

During this time, it was often necessary for [REDACTED] to stand on the street pavement through the hole in the floor to position himself to help the driver. During this time, [REDACTED] observed the rear passenger area of the car to contain a clump of newspaper packaging and some debris on the floor behind the passengers' seat consisting of clothes and particles of the seat that had been destroyed by the blast. [REDACTED] also noticed a rolled-up sleeping bag in the cargo area behind the passenger seat. Additionally, [REDACTED] noticed that nails were sticking in the back of the driver's seat, apparently embedded there by the blast.

b6

He was in the fourth ambulance to arrive at the scene and after reporting to the first ambulance on the scene, learned that there were three patients, two in the car which suffered an explosion and an apparent heart case across the street. While doing this, the first team put the white female driver of the car that suffered an explosion into the ambulance in which he was working. FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

DATE TRANSCRIBED: 05/25/90

On Thursday, 05/24/90, the following investigation was conducted by Special Agent [redacted] US Department of Justice, Federal Bureau of Investigation, San Francisco Division, Oakland Resident Agency:

b6
b7C

[redacted]
[redacted] at approximately 12:10PM, SA [redacted] heard a radio report of a car bombing broadcast by KGO Radio, 810 AM, to the effect that a car bomb with several injured had occurred at the intersection of MacArthur Boulevard and Park Street, Oakland, California. Because of the possibility that the bombing might arise from a matter within the primary jurisdiction of the FBI, SA [redacted] contacted the Oakland Resident Agency via FBI radio and advised that he would respond to the bomb site and ascertain the status of the event.

b6
b7C

Immediately upon arriving at the intersection of MacArthur Boulevard and Park Street, Oakland, California, at approximately 12:20PM, SA [redacted] observed numerous officers of the Oakland, California, Police Department as well as SA [redacted] of the U.S. Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms.

b6
b7C

Additionally, SA [redacted] also observed a heavily damaged Subaru station wagon, white in color, bearing California vehicle license 2NWX290, partially up on the sidewalk of the intersection at the North/West corner of the intersection. Most of the glass was out of the vehicle. The roof was tented by some large force and a large hole was blown through the floor of the vehicle approximately under and to the rear of the driver's seat. A similar large hole was visible through the driver's seat. Several construction-type nails were embedded in those portions of the driver's seat which were relatively still in tact.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

A second small white vehicle with black on a portion of the roof, bearing Tennessee vehicle license [REDACTED] was parked on Park Street approximately three yards behind the white Subaru station wagon. It appeared to be undamaged.

b6
b7C

SA [REDACTED] spoke with Detective Sergeant [REDACTED] Homicide Section, Oakland, California, Police Department, 455 Seventh Street, Oakland, California 94607, telephone [REDACTED] who advised that a female identified as one JUDY BERI had been driving and was severely injured in the blast. One DARRYL CHERNEY had been riding in the front passenger seat and was injured to a lesser degree than BERI. Detective Sergeant Chenault advised that both victims were members of EARTH FIRST.

b6
b7C

[SA [REDACTED] was aware of the existence of a group calling itself EARTH FIRST, which group was aggressively involved with efforts to control or restrict logging in the Ukiah, California, area. He was aware that some news reports had linked the group to the placing of large nails or "spikes" in timber to prevent its use as lumber.]

b6
b7C

Detective Sergeant [REDACTED] advised that the officer responsible for the investigation was Sergeant [REDACTED] Homicide Section, Oakland, California, Police Department (address and telephone number reported supra.) and that both officers reported to Lieutenant [REDACTED] Oakland, California, Police Department, Homicide Section.

b6
b7C

Detective Sergeant [REDACTED] advised they were seeking to obtain the consent from a male who had been in another vehicle not earlier noticed by SA [REDACTED] and resided nearby at [REDACTED] where the victims had spent the evening after attending a meeting with fellow EARTH FIRST members at 3237 California Street, Berkeley, California.

b6
b7C

SA [REDACTED] then walked some seventy to eighty yards approximately West on Park Boulevard examining the blast debris back to the point of ignition. SA [REDACTED] observed that present in the debris were fragments of pipe caps, fragments of the threaded portion of a length of what appeared to be pipe with a diameter of 2.5 to 4 inches, numerous nails, duct tape, and near the point of ignition, a chunk of pipe split open and laid nearly flat by the force of the explosion.

b6
b7C

Inasmuch as the facts as observed indicated to SA [REDACTED] that either the victims had been injured by the accidental explosion of a bomb they were transporting in their vehicle or that they had been the victims of a bomb placed in their vehicle by

b6
b7C

person or persons unknown possibly connected with loggers in the Ukiah area, at approximately 12:30PM, SA [redacted] telephonically contacted from a pay telephone adjacent to the AM/PM Mini-Mart gasoline station on Park Boulevard immediately across from where the explosive device ignited, SSA [redacted] Squad 1, Oakland Resident Agency, San Francisco Division of the FBI, and requested that he commence record checks on the victims and alert SSA [redacted] San Francisco Division, FBI, who is primarily responsible for domestic terrorist bombings.

b6
b7C

Shortly after initially reporting to SSA [redacted] of the FBI, SA [redacted] returned to the area where the damaged vehicle was located. After a passage of time, Sgt. [redacted] advised that he and other officers of the Oakland, California, Police Department, were going to execute a consent search / exigent circumstance search for explosives & explosive devices in the residence at [redacted] SA [redacted] accompanied Sgt. [redacted] and another officer to the nearby residence.

b6
b7C

SA [redacted] observed Sgt. [redacted] to knock on the door of the residence, a detached two-story single family brown shingle structure with the number [redacted] affixed to it, and identify himself as a police officer. After a delay of approximately one minutes and several additional efforts at knocking on the door and identifying himself, Sgt. [redacted] then opened the front door with a set of keys. Prior to entering the residence and throughout the entry process, Sgt. [redacted] continued to shout "police, anybody home" in a loud and clear voice.

b6
b7C

A protective sweep was made of the residence and then Sgt. [redacted] assigned officers to make a cursory search of the residence for explosives, explosive devices, and bomb-making paraphernalia. After a few minutes, SA [redacted] of the US Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms, arrived at the location and continued the search with a more expert eye.

b6
b7C

After approximately fifteen or twenty minutes, Sgt. [redacted] and other officers, including SA [redacted] returned to the scene of the explosion to organize a detailed crime scene. SA [redacted] checked in with SA [redacted] and was advised [redacted]

b6
b7C

[redacted] that additional FBI agents from the Oakland Resident Agency and the Terrorist Squad in San Francisco were en route. SA [redacted] was advised that agents of the Terrorist Squad would be assuming primary federal investigative responsibility.

SA [redacted] then worked for the remainder of the afternoon assisting US Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms SA [redacted]
